FATAL ACCIDENT.-We learn that a colored man named Jim Whitelock, formerly a slave of Mr. Jno. G. Hall, while riding on the tender of the inward bound passenger train of the Wil., Char. & Rutherford Railroad yesterday afternoon, fell asleep and dropped off under the cars, between Hilton and Smith's Creek bridge. The whole train passed over him, and he was frightfully mangled, death resulting instantaneously. The deceased was about 40 years of age, and bore a good character. GENTLEMEN who desire to do the thing | son county, that while they have been dein style will make New Year's calls in swallow-tailed coats,

December 14, 1871.

TURPENTINE.-The bulk of stock in the coun try having become worked off considerably, the receipts during the week ending to day. (Thursday) are comparatively smaller than last week's. The larger portion of all received during the past week has been what is known as scrape, or hard. The demand from distillers continues good, and all receipts are held here, no shipments of conscquence having taken place. The market has ruled without change, opening and closing at $3 50 for hard or scrape, $5 25 for yellow dip,
